

Children Day Celebration

Theme: “Children’s of Today Our Keepers Tomorrow”

Venue: Jharbari High School Playground

Date: 14th November 2018

NEDAN Foundation had organized the International children day celebration of Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru’s Birthday on 14th November 2018 which is known as Children’s Day or Baal Divas held in Jharbari High school playground with the theme of “Children’s of today our keepers tomorrow”. The program was started by group dance performed by children group of Baganpara, Kochugaon. Children from 25 locations have participated in the celebration of children day at Jharbari high school playground. Mr. Pradip Kumar Borgoyari the head teacher of Jharbari high school was invited as Chief Guest in the program.

Program was inaugurated by Mr. Pradip Bargoyari the head teacher of Jharbari High school, along with all the teacher staff of Jharbari High school and all NEDAN staff. Mr. Pradip Kr. Borgoyari the head teacher of Jharbari high school gave a brief description about why children day is celebrated and he also added by saying children participation in sports events is very important in their life in which they can developed themselves physically and mentally along with their regular studies. He expresses his gratitude to NEDAN for bringing the children’s from different un-serve areas to participate in one platform to show the talent in different aspects. He also added by saying every children in important and special and we need to ensure to protect children who need care and protection.

The program was started with colorful games and activities for the Children like running race for both boys and girls musical chair only for girls, cock fighting for boys and chocolate bite for both boys and girls.

The program ended with the group live performance of folklore on drop out, child labour and on child trafficking by santhali group and bodo group and also group dance performance Bengali muslim children.